Preface

THIS revised edition of the Church Hymnal has as its much prized imprimatur the request for its publication by many who have used previous editions; and in continuing such use desire to have also hymns more recently approved by the Church. The revision then consists mainly in the omission of some hymns and tunes which were rarely if ever used, and the inclusion of other hymns approved by the Convention of 1916, together with a few for special occasions and services. By the action of the Convention of 1919 this Hymnal has the same official standing as any other. It is hoped that it may be helpful in what should be the aim of every Hymnal, viz., the promotion of congregational singing, and the hearty worship of the Lord's House.

The arrangement of hymns which has been in use in our Hymnals for the past twenty-five years — an arrangement adopted in the admirable Hymnal of the Canadian Church as well as in the best English Hymnals, — is retained in this book, as giving the freest use of many of the most desirable and favourite hymns.

In sending out his final book, the editor is reminded that it is published on the fiftieth anniversary of the publication of his first Church Hymnal; and while returning thanks for the many helpful suggestions he has received in the preparation of this book, he would also express deep appreciation of the kindness of those who in the use of his Hymnals have kindly pardoned their many defects.

Morning

MELCOMBE

L. M.

mf = 88. New ev - ery morn - ing is the love Our wakening and up - ris - ing prove;

Thro' sleep and darkness safely brought, Restor'd to life, and pow'r, and thought. AMEN.

mf 2 New mercies, each returning day,
Hover around us while we pray;
New perils past, new sins forgiven, cr New thoughts of God, new hopes of heaven.

mf 4 Old friends, old scenes, will lovelier
As more of heaven in each we see; [be, dim Some softening gleam of love and prayer
Shall dawn on every cross and care.

mf 3 If on our daily course our mind
Be set to hallow all we find,
New treasures still, of countless price,
God will provide for sacrifice.

mf 5 The trivial round, the common task,
Will furnish all we need to ask;
Room to deny ourselves, a road
To bring us daily nearer God.

p 6 Only, O Lord, in Thy dear love, Fit us for perfect rest above;
mf And help us, this and every day,
To live more nearly as we pray.

MORNING

MORNING HYMN
F. H. Bartholomew

2 PART I

L. M.

f 1 A-wake, my soul, and with the sun Thy dai-ly stage of du-ty run;
2 Re-deem thy misspent time that's past, And live this day as if thy last;

f Shake off dull sloth, and ear-ly rise To pay thy morn-ing sac-ri-fice. A-MEN.
Im-prove thy tal-ent with due care; For the great Day thy-self prepare.

- mf* 3 Let all Thy converse be sincere,
Thy conscience as the noonday clear;
Think how all-seeing God thy ways
And all thy secret thoughts surveys.
- mf* 4 Wake, and lift up thyself, my heart,
And with the an-gels bear thy part,
Who all night long, unwearied, sing
High praise to the eternal King.
- mf* 5 All praise to Thee, Who safe has kept,
And hast refreshed me while I slept;
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake
I may of endless light partake.
- mf* 6 Lord, I my vows to Thee renew;
Scatter my sins as morning dew;
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with Thyself my spirit fill.
- mf* 7 Direct, control, suggest, this day,
All I design, or do, or say;
That all my pow'rs, with all their might,
In Thy sole glory may unite.
- f* 8 Praise God, from Whom all blessings flow,
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, angelic host:
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

When thine aim is good and true;
But that He may ever thwart thee, cr Sleep that shall me more vigorous make mf 2 For Christ is born of Mary,

And gathered all above,
While mortals sleep, the angels keep
Their watch of wondering love.

f O morning stars, together
Proclaim the holy birth!
And praises sing to God the King,
And peace to men on earth.

mp 3 How silently, how silently,
The wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of His heaven.

p No ear may hear His coming,
But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive Him still,
The dear Christ enters in.

mf 4 O holy Child of Bethlehem!
Descend to us, we pray;
cr Cast out our sin, and enter in,

6. 4. 6. 3

2. [Heavy that cross to Him, Wea - ry the weight; One who will help Him waits At the gate.

mf 3 See! they are travelling
On the same road;

Him the load.]

mf 4 O whither wandering
Bear they that tree?
He Who first carries it,
Who is He?

II. THE ANSWER

mf 5. Fol - low to Cal - va - ry; Tread where He trod, He who for ev - er was Son of God.
mf 6. [You who would love Him stand, Gaze at His face: Tar - ry a while on your Earth - ly race.

mf 7 As the swift moments fly
Through the blest week,

mf 8 Is there no beauty to
You who pass by,
In that lone figure which Marks that sky?

III. THE STORY OF THE CROSS.

p 9. On the Cross lift - ed Thy face we scan, Bearing that Cross for us, Son of Man.
p 10. Thorns form Thy dia - dem, Rough wood Thy throne; For us Thy blood is shed, Us a - lone.

mf 16 Gazing, afar from Thee,
Silent and lone,
Stand those few weepers Thou
Callest Thine own

Though it is day:
Thy friends and kinsfolk stand
Far away.

pp Hangeth Thy bleeding head
Without rest.

Here didst Thou see,
dim Which made Thee suffer and Die for me?

IV. THE APPEAL.

mf 2 Late at even there was seen
Watching long the Magdalene;
Early, ere the break of day,

To the holy garden glade,
Where her buried Lord was laid.

mf 3 So with Thee, till life shall end,
I would solemn vigil spend:
Let me hew Thee, Lord, a shrine
In this rocky heart of mine,
Where in pure embalmèd cell
None but Thou may ever dwell.

mf 4 Myrrh and spices will I bring,
True affection's offering;
p Close the door from sight and sound

f 2 Now the iron bars are broken,
Christ from death to life is born,
Glorious life, and life immortal,
On this holy Easter morn:
Christ has triumphed, and we conquer
By His mighty enterprise,
We with Him to life eternal
By His resurrection rise.

f 3 Christ is risen, Christ, the first-fruits
Of the holy harvest-field,
Which will all its full abundance
At His second coming yield:
Then the golden ears of harvest
Will their heads before Him wave,
Ripened by His glorious sunshine
From the furrows of the grave.

f 4 Christ is risen, we are risen !
 Shed upon us heavenly grace,
 Rain and dew and gleams of glory
 From the brightness of Thy face:
 That, with hearts in heaven dwelling,
 We on earth may fruitful be,
 And by angel-hands be gathered,
 And be ever, Lord, with Thee.

f 5 Alleluia! Alleluia!
 Glory be to God on high;
 Alleluia to the Saviour
 Who has won the victory;
 Alleluia to the Spirit,
 Fount of love and sanctity;
 Alleluia! Alleluia!
 To the Triune Majesty.

ST. ANDREW

- f* 2 Praise, Lord, for Thine Apostle, the first to welcome Thee,
The first to lead his brother, the very Christ to see.
mf With hearts for Thee made ready, watch we throughout the year, cr Forward to lead our brethren to own Thine Advent near.

ST. THOMAS

- f* 3 All praise for Thine Apostle, whose short-lived doubtings prove cr Thy perfect twofold nature, the fulness of Thy love.
dim On all who wait Thy coming shed forth Thy peace, O Lord, cr And grant us faith to know Thee, true Man, true God, adored.

ST. STEPHEN

- f* 4 Praise for the first of Martyrs, who saw Thee ready stand,
To aid in midst of torments, to plead at God's right hand.
mf Share we with him, if summoned by death our Lord to own,
On earth the faithful witness, in heaven the martyr crown.

ST. JOHN THE EVANGELIST

- f* 5 Praise for the loved disciple, (mf) exile on Patmos' shore;
f Praise for the faithful record, he to Thy Godhead bore, Praise for the mystic vision, through him to us revealed.
mf May we, in patience waiting, with Thine elect be sealed.

THE HOLY INNOCENTS

- f* 6 Praise for Thine infant martyrs, (dim) by Thee with tenderest love
p Called early from the warfare to share the rest above.
cr O Rachel! cease thy weeping: they rest from pains and cares.
dim Lord, grant us hearts as guileless, (cr) and crowns as bright as theirs.

THE CONVERSION OF ST. PAUL

- f* 7 Praise for the light from heaven, praise for the voice of awe, Praise for the glorious vision the persecutor saw.
Thee, Lord, for his conversion, we glorify to-day;
mf So lighten all our darkness with Thy true Spirit's ray.

OTHER FEASTS AND FASTS

ST. MATTHIAS

- mf* 8 Lord, Thine abiding presence directs the wondrous choice;
 For one in place of Judas the faithful now rejoice.
 Thy Church from false apostles for evermore defend,
 And by Thy parting promise be with her to the end.

ST. MARK

- f* 9 For him, O Lord, we praise Thee, the weak by grace made strong, Whose labours and whose Gospel enrich our triumph-song.
mf May we in all our weakness find strength from Thee supplied,
 And all, as fruitful branches, in Thee, the Vine abide.

ST. PHILIP AND ST. JAMES

- f* 10 All praise for Thine Apostle, blest guide to Greek and Jew,
 And him surnamed Thy brother; (mf) keep us Thy brethren true,
 And grant us grace to (cr) know Thee, the Way, the Truth, the Life;
dim To wrestle with temptations (cr) till victors in the strife.

ST. BARNABAS

- mf* 11 The Son of Consolation, moved by Thy law of love,
 Forsaking earthly treasures, sought riches from above.
 As earth now teems with increase, let gifts of grace descend, cr That Thy true consolations may through the world extend.

ST. JOHN BAPTIST

- f* 12 We praise Thee for the Baptist, forerunner of the Word,
 Our true Elias, making a high way for the Lord.
mf Of prophets last and greatest, (cr) he saw Thy dawning ray:
f Make us the rather blessed, who love Thy glorious day.

ST. PETER

- f* 13 Praise for Thy great Apostle, the eager and the bold;
p Thrice falling, (mf) yet repentant, thrice charged to keep Thy Fold.
p Lord, make Thy pastors faithful, (cr) to guard their flocks from ill,
 And grant them dauntless courage, (dim) with humble, earnest will.

ST. JAMES

- f* 14 For him, O Lord, we praise Thee, (mf) who, slain by Herod's sword, Drank of Thy cup of suffering, fulfilling thus Thy word.
 Curb we all vain impatience to read Thy veiled decree,
 And count it joy to suffer, (cr) if so brought nearer Thee.

ST. BARTHOLOMEW

- f* 15 All praise for Thine Apostle, the faithful, pure, and true, Whom underneath the fig tree Thine eye all-seeing knew.
mf Like him may we be guileless, true Israelites indeed, cr That Thy abiding presence our longing souls may feed.

ST. MATTHEW

- f* 16 Praise, Lord, for him whose Gospel Thy human life declared,
 Who, worldly gains forsaking, (dim) Thy path of suffering shared.
p From all unrighteous mammon, O give us hearts set free,
 That we, whate'er our calling, (cr) may rise and follow Thee.

ST. LUKE

- f* 17 For that "beloved physician," all praise, whose Gospel shows
 The Healer of the nations, the Sharer of our woes.
mf Thy wine and oil, O Saviour, on bruised hearts deign to pour,
cr And with true balm of Gilead anoint us evermore.

ST. SIMON AND ST. JUDE

- f* 18 Praise, Lord, for Thine Apostles, who sealed their faith to-day:
 One love, one zeal impelled them to tread the sacred way.
mf May we with zeal as earnest the Faith of Christ maintain,
 And, bound in love as brethren, (dim) at length Thy rest attain.

GENERAL ENDING

- mf* 19 Apostles, Prophets, Martyrs, and all the sacred throng,
 Who wear the spotless raiment, who raise the ceaseless song;
p For these, passed on before us, (cr) Saviour, we Thee adore,
 And, walking in their footsteps, (f) would serve Thee more and more.
f 20 Then praise we God the Father, and praise we God the Son,
 And God the Holy Spirit, eternal Three in One;
 Till all the ransomed number fall down before the throne,
 And honour, power, and glory ascribe to God alone.

Perish self in Thy pure fire!
3 Holy Spirit, Power divine,
Fill and nerve this will of mine;

Bravely bear, and nobly strive.
4 Holy Spirit, Right divine,
King within my conscience reign;

Be my law, and I shall be

 His rage we can endure,
 For lo! his doom is sure,
 One little word shall fell him.

4 That word above all earthly powers,
 No thanks to them, abideth;
 The Spirit and the gifts are ours
 Through Him who with us sideth:
 Let goods and kindred go,
 This mortal life also;
 The body they may kill:
 God's truth abideth still,
 His kingdom is for ever.

How calm yon river glideth,
God's city mirrored on its breast,

Hushed be all strife and din!
His presence dwells within,
She standeth unremoved,

3 In vain the heathen shout for war,
In vain our foes assemble;

And earth itself shall tremble.

Let all the world adore Him,
And bending low before His throne,
For pitying grace implore Him.

Exults to feel Him near, calm de - light Can live, and look on Thee. A - MEN.

mf 2 The spirits that surround Thy throne
 May bear the burning bliss;
 But surely that is theirs alone
 Who, undefiled, have never known
 A fallen world like this.

mp 3 O how shall I, whose native sphere
 Is dark, whose mind is dim,
 Before the Ineffable appear,
 And on my naked spirit bear
 The uncreated beam?

mf 4 There is a way for man to rise
 To that sublime abode:
 An offering and a sacrifice,
 A Holy Spirit's energies,
 An Advocate with God:

5 These, these prepare us for the sight
 Of holiness above:
 The sons of ignorance and night
 May dwell in the eternal Light,
 Through the eternal Love!

mf 2 There is no place where earth's sorrows
Are more felt than up in heaven;
There is no place where earth's failings

There is plentiful redemption

In the sorrows of the Head.

3 For the love of God is broader
Than the measures of man's mind;

Thou, the soul's most welcome guest;	On our dryness pour Thy dew;
Sweet refreshment here below;	Wash the stains of guilt away:
In our labour, rest most sweet;	Bend the stubborn heart and will,
Grateful coolness in the heat;	Melt the frozen, warm the chill;
Solace in the midst of woe.	Guide the steps that go astray.

mf 3 O most blessed Light divine,	mf 5 On the faithful, who adore
Shine within these hearts of Thine,	And confess Thee, evermore
And our inmost being fill!	In Thy sevenfold gifts descend;

Nothing good in deed or thought,	Give them Thy salvation, Lord;
Nothing free from taint of ill.	Give them joys that never end.

mp 2 He leads us on through all the unquiet years;
Past all our dreamland hopes, and doubts, and fears
He guides our steps; through all the tangled maze
Of losses, sorrows, and o'erclouded days
We know His will is done,
And still He leads us on.

3 And He, at last, — after the weary strife,
After the restless fever we call life,
After the dreariness, the aching pain,
The wayward struggles which have proved in vain,
After our toils are past, —
Will give us rest at last.

Through constant watching wise,
To meet the glad with joyful smiles
And to wipe the weeping eyes ;

3 I would not have the restless will
That hurries to and fro,
Seeking for some great thing to do,
Or secret thing to know ;
I would be treated as a child,
And guided where I go.

4 Wherever in the world I am,
In whatsoe'er estate,
I have a fellowship with hearts

To keep and cultivate ;

And a work of lowly love to do
For the Lord on whom I wait.

5 So I ask Thee for the daily strength,
To none that ask denied,
And a mind to blend with outward
While keeping at Thy side ; [life,
Content to fill a little space,
If Thou be glorified.

That makes Thy children free ;
And a life of self-renouncing love
Is a life of liberty.

Tell Who died and rose again:
O that happy Easter Day!
'Christ is risen indeed,' we say.

mf 4 Yes, and CHRIST ascended, too,
To prepare a place for you;

So we give Him special praise
After those great Forty Days.

5 Then He sent the HOLY GHOST,
On the day of Pentecost,
With us ever to abide:
Well may we keep Whitsuntide.

f 6 Last of all, we humbly sing
Glory to our GOD and King,
Glory to the ONE in THREE
On the Feast of TRINITY.

THE CANTICLES AND OCCASIONAL ANTHEMS

AND THE

SERVICE OF THE HOLY COMMUNION

The POINTING of the Canticles is that which a Commission appointed by the General Convention prepared and reported to that body, and is the only pointing authorized and set forth by the Convention.

Attention is called to the great importance and practical usefulness of the following suggestions taken from the Preface to the "Cathedral Psalter": —

1. The words, from the commencement of each verse and half-verse, up to the accented syllable, are called the Recitation.

2. On reaching the accented syllable, and beginning with it, the music of the chant commences, in strict time (a tempo), the upright strokes corresponding to the bars. The Recitation must therefore be considered as outside the chant, and may be of any length. The note on which the Recitation is made is called the Reciting-note.

3. If there is no syllable after that which is accented, the accented syllable must be held for one whole bar or measure.

4. An asterisk (*) is a direction to take breath. Other stops (,) must be attended to as in good reading.

5. As the accent holds the position of the first beat of the first bar, it is unnecessary to sing it louder than any of the words recited: its position, musically, will give it quite enough emphasis.

The Lord's Prayer

MINISTER AND PEOPLE

Our Father, who } art in heaven. }

Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, On earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever.
